Why Attend

As organizations face increasingly complex challenges, the role of internal coaches becomes critical in driving sustainable success.

This ICF-certified program equips participants with foundational and advanced coaching skills to inspire engagement, foster leadership growth, and create cross-functional alliances within their organizations.

Delivered by ICF-accredited coaches, this course ensures participants gain confidence and credibility as certified internal coaches, capable of transforming leadership and team dynamics.

Course Methodology

This course adopts a seminar-style format enriched with interactive activities such as individual and group exercises, real-world case studies, and hands-on coaching practice. Participants will leverage structured feedback sessions and toolkits, culminating in a post-training phase with supervision and mentoring to ensure deep skill development aligned with ICF standards.

Course Objectives

By the end of the course, participants will be able to:

• Develop foundational coaching skills and master the ICF competencies to confidently coach leaders and teams.

• Leverage assessment tools and perceptual coaching techniques to foster leadership growth and address blind spots effectively.

• Apply advanced leadership coaching methods to influence, balance priorities, and enhance communication.

• Design strategic coaching frameworks for HR applications, mobilizing teams, and fostering organizational collaboration.

• Address complex organizational challenges with situational coaching approaches, enabling high-performance cultures and successful change management.
