Why Attend

Organizations achieve sustainable success when their workforce capabilities are aligned with strategic objectives. Human capital planning enables organizations to anticipate future talent needs, optimize workforce utilization, and ensure the right people are in the right roles at the right time.

Without a structured approach to workforce planning, organizations often face skill gaps, inefficiencies, and challenges in responding to business changes.

This programme is designed to provide practical tools and frameworks for effective human capital planning. It focuses on workforce analysis, forecasting, talent strategies, and aligning people capabilities with long-term organizational goals.

Course Methodology

This programme combines strategic insight with practical application:

- Real-world HR and workforce planning case studies
- Interactive workshops and group discussions
- Workforce analysis and planning exercises
- Scenario-based planning simulations
- Practical tools and templates for HR professionals

Course Objectives

By the end of this programme, participants will be able to:

- Understand the principles of human capital and workforce planning
- Analyze current workforce capabilities and gaps
- Forecast future talent needs based on business strategy
- Develop effective workforce and talent plans
- Align HR strategies with organizational goals
